TOUR ITINERARY

Day 1

London, Cambridge, Yorkshire

Day 1 of your tour will take you from the bustling city of London to the picturesque countryside of Cambridge and the historical city of York. In Cambridge, you'll have the chance to explore the city's beautiful architecture and waterways by punting on the River Cam. You'll see iconic landmarks like the Bridge of Sighs and King's College Chapel as you glide along the river. In the afternoon, you'll continue your journey to York, where you'll be amazed by the city's rich history and stunning gothic architecture. You'll visit York Minster, explore the city's winding snickelways, and learn about its Viking heritage. At the end of the day, our top tip will be to head down to one of the local pubs to enjoy a delicious traditional Sunday roast dinner. You'll have the choice of roast chicken, beef, or vegetarian nut roast, all served with classic British

Day 2

Hadrians Wall, Jedburgh, Edinburgh

Day 2 of your tour will take you to some of the most historic and scenic places in Scotland. You'll start your day at Hadrian's Wall, a UNESCO World Heritage Site that was built by the Romans over 2,000 years ago. You'll learn about the wall's history and see how it protected the Roman province of Britannia. Next, you'll visit Jedburgh, a charming border town with royal connections and beautiful ruins, such as Jedburgh Abbey. You'll have the chance to explore the town and take in the local sights and museums. In the afternoon, you'll travel to Edinburgh, Scotland's capital city. Your tour leader will introduce you to the city's many fascinating attractions on a driving and walking tour. Edinburgh is known for its rich history, cultural events, and stunning architecture, making it a top tourist destination in the UK.

Day 3

Edinburgh free day

Day 3 of your tour is a free day to explore Edinburgh on your own. The city is known for its cultural attractions and striking grey stone buildings, such as the National Museum of Scotland, the Scottish National Gallery, and the National Library of Scotland. You can take a walk along the Royal Mile, a cobbled street in the heart of Edinburgh's Old Town, and visit the Grassmarket, where you'll find a variety of independent shops and restaurants. You can also visit Edinburgh Castle, which offers breathtaking views of the city. For those who want to shop, Princes Street is a great place to find souvenirs. In the evening, you can enjoy a pint or a traditional dram of whisky in one of the city's many bars and pubs.

Day 4

Loch Ness, Scottish Highlands

Day 4 of your tour will take you to the stunning Scottish Highlands. You'll have the option to take a one-hour cruise on Loch Ness, where you can look for the famous Loch Ness Monster and visit the ruins of Urquhart Castle. You'll then travel to the Highlands, where you'll see Ben Nevis, Britain's highest mountain. The tour will also take you to Glencoe, a beautiful valley with a tragic history. You'll learn about the massacre of Clan MacDonald that took place there in 1692. To end the day, you'll have the chance to taste whisky at one of Scotland's oldest distilleries in Fort William before continuing to your hotel in the Highlands.

Day 5

Lake District, Liverpool

Day 5 of your tour will take you from the Scottish Highlands to the modern city of Liverpool. You'll have the chance to take in the last glimpses of the Scottish landscape and have lunch in the picturesque Lake District. In the late afternoon, you'll arrive in Liverpool, where you can explore the city's rich history and vibrant culture. Liverpool is known for its links to The Beatles and its two premier league football clubs. If you're a fan of the Fab Four, you can visit many of the places that inspired their classic songs, such as Penny Lane and Strawberry Fields. You can also visit the Cavern Club, where The Beatles got their start. You'll have dinner in one of the city's many pubs and have the chance to experience the city's nightlife.

Day 6
